Michael Ellison, Ph.D. has done body/energy work, choreographed, directed, taught and performed across the United States, in Denmark, Canada and the Philippines. As a body-energy worker he has worked extensively with people both in person and remotely- including cancer and AIDS patients - to help them transform their lives. Michael has also worked with many Broadway performers, as well as members of national tours. Artists of all kinds have found Michael's work especially potent as it invites them to use their imaginations to release energetic blocks in order to conceive of new options and life-altering perspectives. Open to the possibilities!
